Buena Vista University Beavers
(14-20 overall, 3-5 IIAC – 6th)

Starters Returning/Lost: 6/1

Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 9/6

About the Team: Buena Vista looks to ride the confidence it gained in the 2003 Conference Tournament, where as the sixth-seed the team advanced to the Championship match. Six starters return from that team and they are joined by nine freshmen who will be looked upon for depth as the Beavers look to improve on their sixth-place regular season finish and repeat their Tournament performance.

Quote from the Coach: Sixth-year coach Amy Sander says “We have a good core of returning players who have gained valuable experience the last couple of seasons and we hope that experience will translate into more wins and a better finish in the Conference standings. Our challenge this season is to be ready to play every night and hopefully, be competitive every night.”

Central College Dutch
(26-10 overall, 8-0 IIAC – 1st)

Starters Returning/Lost: 5/1

Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 12/4

About the Team: At the end of last season, Central found itself where it typically does – at the top of the Conference standings and playing in the NCAA Tournament. However, the Dutch lost in the semifinals of both the Conference and NCAA Regional Tournament. With five starters back, Central is ready to compete for its ninth straight Conference title, its ninth NCAA Tournament appearance and its fourth national title.

Quote from the Coach: Second-year coach Kent Clayberg says, “We have great team chemistry and able leaders who are fully committed to this program and its goals. The team is full of players who are willing and able to step into the gaps and get things done. With Central volleyball, there’s always the expectation that the team is going to do well. But this is a team that has an appreciation for the kind of commitment it takes to be successful at the national level. We won the Conference title and that’s an awesome thing but we didn’t play well in the national tournament. This team has goals of bigger and better things.”

Coe College Kohawks
(10-24 overall, 1-7 IIAC – 9th)

Starters Returning/Lost: 6/0

Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 12/0

About the Team: Despite returning all six starters and all 12 letterwinners from last season, Coe remains one of the youngest teams in the Conference. Five of the starters and eight of the letterwinners are just sophomores. The experience the team received last year will help the Kohawks improve on its 10-24 record.

Quote from the Coach: Third-year coach Heather Schmidt says, “Coe volleyball is building. Each year we are bringing in great athletes to make this program one of the best in the Conference. It might not happen this year or next, but over time Coe volleyball will be something to talk about. With just three seniors, 12 sophomores and 11 newcomers, it will be another year of learning and adjusting but I feel the ladies have put in their time this summer, and are more confident and ready for the competition.”

Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 13/4

About the Team: Cornell pulled off an upset in the Conference Tournament, defeating #2-Simpson and returns five starters from that squad including record setting middle hitter Kori Sims, who received a medical hardship waiver to compete again this season. The Rams have a veteran line-up with four seniors and two experienced sophomores

Quote from the Coach: Third-year coach Jeff Meeker says, “We are excited about our chances this season. We believe we are ready to take another step forward in terms of our competitiveness and place in the standings. We return five of six starters plus our libero and have a great group of newcomers who have the ability to make an immediate impact.”

University of Dubuque Spartans
(19-15 overall, 5-3 IIAC – t-3rd)

Starters Returning/Lost: 3/4

Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 6/7

About the Team: Although there will be a new face leading the Spartans, the team looks to maintain its presence in the top of the Conference standings, having finished in the top-half of the Conference standings in seven of the last eight years. To keep that streak alive, Dubuque will rely on a young line-up that includes just one senior, three juniors and four sophomores.

Quote from the Coach: First-year coach David Jackson says, “People can expect a quick tempo offense and an energetic style of defense from a team with a good mix of veteran leadership and youth.”

(21-14 overall, 4-4 IIAC – 5th)

Starters Returning/Lost: 2/4

Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 8/4

About the Team: Loras' biggest question mark heading into the season is who will replace two-time All-Conference setter Kristen Anderson, the school's all-time leader in career assists. The Duhawks are experienced elsewhere on the floor and successfully replacing Anderson should lead to a successful campaign.

Quote from the Coach: Second-year coach Brian Meeter says, "You can expect a very balanced team with a little more fire power offensively than last year. Team hustle and scrappiness are going to be a continued strength of our team. Defensively, our team will make an improvement with added size at the net and more experience in our backcourt."

Wartburg College Knights
(30-11 overall, 5-3 IIAC – t-3rd)

Starters Returning/Lost: 5/2

Letterwinners Returning/Lost: 7/3

About the Team: Wartburg enters the 2004 season looking to extend its streak of 30-win seasons and its three-year run at qualifying for the NCAA Tournament. To continue those streaks, the Knights must replace the first All-American in the program's history (Dia Dohlman) and a three-time All-Conference performer (Amy Kueker). A strong senior class that has an 88-28 overall record through its first three years will lead Wartburg through a schedule that features seven schools ranked in the AVCA final top-25 in 2003.

Quote from the Coach: Seventh-year coach Jennifer Walker says, "We will have a very young squad this season with only three seniors and two juniors on the team. It will be interesting to see how the team comes together and develops throughout the season. I believe that our three seniors (Ranae Grafft, Sarah Olson and Erica Slack) will do an excellent job of guiding this team. We're looking forward to the challenges and opportunities that await us in the coming months."
